

A man wearing a dark fedora, a patterned scarf, a dark jacket, and a striped shirt is walking through a doorway. He is carrying a patterned bag in his right hand and a black suitcase in his left. The scene is lit with dramatic, low-key lighting, creating a moody atmosphere. The text 'Snowman' is overlaid in a large, white, distressed font, and 'I'm back' is written below it in a white, cursive script. A small white silhouette of a person is positioned to the right of the word 'Snowman'.
